

Jersey is the most southerly of the Channel Islands, located 14 miles from the coast of France. It has beautiful beaches and enjoys a mild maritime climate with many sport and social facilities. The island maintains frequent transportation links to all major cities in the UK and is only 40 minutes' flying time to London.

The screenshot shows the 'States of Jersey' website header with the tagline 'The official website for public services and information online'. It includes a search bar and navigation links for 'Newsroom', 'A-Z Contacts', and 'Register/Login'. The main content area is titled 'Working in Jersey' and features a 'Browse by subject' sidebar with categories like 'Benefits and financial support', 'Caring and support', 'Education', 'Environment and greener living', 'Government and administration', 'Health and wellbeing', 'Home and community', and 'Industry and finance'. The central section has a 'Jobs in Jersey' heading with a sub-image of a person in a suit and text encouraging users to sign up for job alerts. Below this are two columns of links: 'Employment relations' (including 'Reviewing the minimum wage', 'The Employment Forum', and 'Employment relations law') and 'Job and careers advice' (including 'Choosing or changing your career - help from Careers Jersey', 'How can Social Security help me find work?', and 'Losing your job'). A 'See also' sidebar on the right lists 'Statistics Unit', 'Housing laws', and 'Regulation of Undertakings and 1 (1)(j) employees'.

With 48 miles of dramatic coastline, take a walk and lose yourself in the view.
