

Grainville School LPPA Award 2009-1012

The first school in the Channel Islands to achieve this special recognition (June 2009)

For parents, LPPA:

Ensures provision of high quality information about the life of the school and their children's learning and progress

Leads to improved communication with school staff

Encourages ongoing partnership with and support for the school

Builds confidence through participation in lifelong learning opportunities

Facilitates more effective participation in their children's learning at home and at school

For schools, LPPA:

Improves home school communication

Helps to achieve pupil/student achievement through stronger parental support

Provides qualitative and quantitative evidence of improvement and success

Supports school self evaluation

Engages parents in discussion about the life and development of the school

For pupils and students, LPPA:

Increases confidence in the school and improves attitudes

Provides enhanced support for learning at home and at school

Promotes social and emotional well being through improved parent/school partnerships

Supports improvement in behaviour, attendance, punctuality and achievement

Working in partnership